Aldermen to Probe Means of Increasing Revenue This Year

EDUCATIONAL LEVY
PLAN IS SUGGESTED

Sheppard Opposes Scheme on Ground of Undue Penalty

The City Council last night appointed a special committee to look out some suitable form of taxation whereby additional revenue might be obtained to take up the balance of the educational levy. While no further definition was taken it was indicated by the majority of the council that some form of an educational tax whereby all of the residents enjoying the privilege of education, regardless of whether they were property owners or not, would be required to contribute to the upkeep of the school system would be desirable.

The committee appointed consisted of Aldermen Douglas, Rea, Harty, Fisher and Adams. In view of the fact that it is necessary to act in haste, the committee will meet within the next few days and will be asked to report to the council to be made to council not later than the first of next month.

Two Forms Suggested

The principle of the tax which has been discussed recently by various organizations throughout the city, and which has been approved, but no very definite suggestion was made as to how such a tax would be applied. Other suggestions were made as to whether it should be levied on property owners, on the rental and automobile tax.

Alderman Douglas, who for some time has been a strong supporter of the principle of the tax, stated that sufficient could be raised by this tax to take up the balance of the cost of education, permitting the mill rate to remain on the same basis as at present.

Whether the tax was collected out of the cost of the property or out of the rental, it was suggested that the tax should be specifically earmarked for educational purposes and should be known as an educational tax.

Many Not Property Holders

At the present time approximately 50 per cent of the residents of the city who were taking advantage of the schools were not property owners and as a result were not contributing to the cost of the schools, but at the present time were receiving the benefit of the schools, and it was suggested that the tax should be levied on all residents of the city, regardless of whether they wanted to or not.

It was suggested that the capital charges be raised as at present, but that the operating charges be reduced by this tax.

Alderman Rea suggested that if a special educational tax was applied to the residents of the city, it would be necessary to reduce the property tax.

Opposed Proposed Tax

Alderman Douglas, who opposed the educational tax idea on the grounds that it would penalize the renter who was not a property owner, suggested that the tax should be levied on the rental of property.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—The Greek government has refused to accede to the extremists' proposal to reduce the tax on the rental of property.

Girls, 16, Pinned Under Motor with Bodies of Escorts

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 25.—Two girls, Miss Essie Thomas, 16, and Miss Irene Chilton, 16, were imprisoned for over six hours with the dead bodies of their two male companions, Charles Whalen, 22, and Guy Burnett, 21, when an automobile in which they were riding skidded off a road near here early today and overturned.

Miss Chilton said the two men were crushed to death.

CANADA VS. FLOUR KING

Can Sell Cheaper in New York Than the American Mills

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Flour millers' interests argued before the tariff commission today for maintenance of the present tariff restriction on wheat, flour and wheat products. They were unable, however, to convince the commission that the interests of the wheat and flour trade of the United States would be served by the maintenance of the present tariff restriction.

The millers testified Canadian mills were able to put down a barrel of flour in New York, at a price of $1.12, seven cents less than it costs United States millers to place flour in the New York market.

They pointed out that if the wheat duty of $1.12, which was not placed of flour, the duty would be able to undercut United States millers in the New York market.

Canada's flour was selling in London a week ago for the equivalent of $1.12, which was not placed of flour, the duty would be able to undercut United States millers in the New York market.

Northern Pacific Railway Has Failed to Keep Promises Made in Protest—Congress Set on Trail by the President

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—President Coolidge has set Congress on the trail on what will prove to be another great scandal, which has swept over the western states, and which has cost the government tens of millions of dollars.

The lands in question lie in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, North Dakota, Minnesota and Wisconsin. It is estimated that the charges made by Messrs. Wallace and Work, one of the greatest land frauds in the history of the country will be uncovered.

Congress has been asked by President Coolidge to investigate the land grant of 1864, conveying 10,000,000 acres of western land to the Northern Pacific Railway, to determine whether the company is entitled to the remaining 1,000,000 acres not yet patented to it.

Reduction in Some Semi-Business Areas as It Has Been Demonstrated They Seem Unable to Bear the Strain

Commissioner Yorath. During the past few years more lots reverted to the city from these sections in comparison to their share than from any other part of the city he declared.

Considerable opposition to allowing this reduction to be maintained in the 1924 assessment roll was offered by Aldermen Pindley and East. They felt that the city's situation should be made, but when the question came to a vote these two aldermen, were practically alone.

The four unions of the Civil Service Federation who refused to take reduction in salaries issue these demands, including the firemen, police, firemen and steam operating en-

A request had been made on behalf of these unions by the Trades and Labor Council for a board of Conciliation, but it was pointed out by the commissioners in view of the fact that there was no intention on the part of council to cut salaries, that would be no occasion for conciliation.

A communication from the Separate School Board included in the Commissioners' report to council, stated that the estimates for that body for this year's requirements totalled for $130,000, which is about $7,000 more than last year.

the 1924 census indicated that the limit for purely civic administration in 1924 would be approximately the same as for 1923 in spite of the fact that last year reserves amounting to $178,100 had been taken into the general revenue fund. Reductions in departmental requirements and the increased revenue from the public utilities made this condition possible, it was stated.

LETTER FROM SALLY ATTRIBUTED TO BEATRICE GRIM.

Well, here I am, dear Be, and settled, like you, in my new home, and I am especially pleased with my new home, John Alden Park.

When you have met, I think

Leola certainly should be especially happy in her married life, but I wish you, back in my head, I have a feeling that she isn't.

Can't possible think, however, that Mr. Prescott is to blame, because so frank and sincere and affectly honest. You know, I haven't seen Leola since before her marriage. I wonder if she has changed. It is always a dangerous thing for a woman to get to marry a poor man, you know.

After all, I wonder why Mr.

Hamilton did not settle a sum of money upon Leola when she married. It seems he had some old-fashioned idea that every young man and woman should live upon the husband's coat. Modern ladies forget that they have lost their daughters up to great leaves instead of making them capable of living on their own.

Of course, my dear Be, I have no right to write you these things to you. The only thing which makes me think you are right is that I have heard you say

Leola and her husband in the fact that she is so worried over something. I know it is not money, and money, but his secretary and knowing all about his financial troubles. I have heard him say that he is in the red. I have heard him say that he is in the red. I have heard him say that he is in the red. I have heard him

Prince Snubs Dancer; Uses Toes to Eat; Like Bovine Wedding

"Peek-a-booo," said "California grey" to Miss Gertrude Olmsted as he peeped his head out of the silver cup won by his mother at a rabbit show in Los Angeles

Miss Anne Sproule of Stellan, N. S., a near-east relief worker at Beirut, Syria, was married recently in that country to Professor Alfred Bastress of New York. Miss Sproule has been engaged in relief work for nearly three years

Miss June Day, an American dancer, who has been appearing in Nice, states that her engagement to the Italian Prince Del Diag is at an end. The prince went to Rome to obtain the consent of his parents, but failed to return on the day arranged

Sir William Wheeler, president of the Royal College of Surgeons, of Ireland, proved in an address recently that a child born to-day had 12 more years to live than a child born 25 years ago, due to strides made in medicine

Tamed by its hunger, this deer is shown giving a shy kiss of thanks to the man who fed it the first square meal in some time. The photograph was taken outside of Newburgh, N.Y.

Miss Martha Hale, of the University of California, though handicapped without hands or arms, overcomes her deformity by using her remarkable toes. She has no difficulty in "handling" her knife and fork gracefully and can hold a glass without mishap

Here is a new photograph of Fred Beauvais, the Canadian Indian guide, named by James A. Stillman as co-respondent in the celebrated divorce case. He is shown standing beside his dog sled in Montreal where he frequently enters dog races during the winter

Gwendolyn Field Edmonstone, granddaughter of Marshall Field, pioneer Chicago merchant, formally renounced her American citizenship recently. She was married last year to a British subject, Archibald Charles Edmonstone

Hon. J. P. A. Cardin, new minister of marine at Ottawa, shown at his desk shortly after taking over his new duties. He succeeded Hon. Ernest Lapointe, who became minister of justice

Dr. Thomas J. Nolan of New York claims that tubercular patients may be cured by means of the apparatus shown. Smoke containing carbon and calcium salts is breathed from it into the lungs through the mouthpiece

This Mexican ammunition train was blown up recently by rebel troops under the command of General Hippolite Villa, a brother of the former bandit leader, at Limnax, Mexico, during the fighting in that territory

Miners are shown at work in the model coal mine at Wembley, which will be one of the features of the British section of the coming British Empire Exhibition

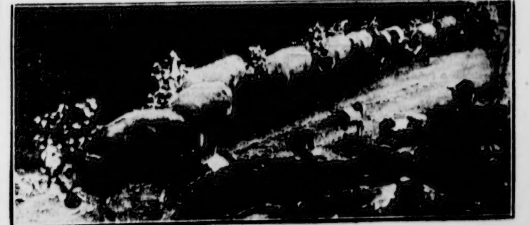

Baby Gloria Curuso, daughter of the late great tenor, enjoys fishing at Palm Beach as much as any of the other visitors at the famous resort — better than most of them, in fact

Lieut. Corlies Griffin of Hamilton, Ohio, was released from a German prison recently where he was confined for an attempt to kidnap Grover Bergdahl. He is shown being greeted by his mother and sister on his arrival in New York

This cage of monkeys does not believe, as Edison does, that four hours of sleep a day is sufficient. If it wasn't for leading time they could beat the record of old Rip Van Winkle

Although the above looks like a wedding in bovine land, it is merely the return of the cattle from the customary "summer board" in the Bavarian mountains. The herds are joyfully greeted by the owners who decorate them with flowers and ribbons

Twelve-year-old Loysne Heme of Norway gave some remarkable exhibitions of fancy skating at Chamonix during the recent Olympic winter sports contests

Mr. J. Spry, a member of the British international roller skating team, was the winner of the one-mile open amateur championship in London recently. After his victory he was "chaired" by the lady instructors of the rink
